

TEEWIT

Meaning: Teewit: a term for a lapwing, a type of bird known for its distinctive call and aerial displays, often found in marshy or open countryside.

1. The sharp call of the teewit echoed across the marshlands at dawn.
2. As I walked through the countryside, I spotted a teewit soaring above the fields.
3. The teewit is known for its distinctive black and white plumage, which makes it stand out.
4. During the spring, the teewit's mating display is a mesmerizing sight to behold.
5. Farmers often regard the teewit as a sign that warmer weather is on the way.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/teewit>