

TELEGRAM

Meaning: A telegram is a written message sent by telegraph, typically delivered in a printed format, often used for urgent or important communications.

1. The telegram arrived just in time to announce the good news of her engagement.
2. In the age of instant messaging, sending a telegram feels almost like a relic of the past.
3. He was thrilled to receive a telegram from his old friend, inviting him to the reunion.
4. The telegram delivered the urgent message that would change their plans for the weekend.
5. With a flourish, she tore open the telegram, her heart racing with anticipation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/telegram>