

TELEGRAPHER

Meaning: A telegrapher is a person who sends and receives messages using a telegraph, often involving the transmission of coded signals over wires.

1. The telegrapher skillfully tapped out messages that traveled across the wires in mere moments.
2. In the early 20th century, a telegrapher was often among the most important figures in a bustling train station.
3. After years of practice, the telegrapher could send and receive messages at astonishing speeds.
4. Many telegraphers took pride in their ability to interpret Morse code with lightning-fast accuracy.
5. The invention of the telephone gradually diminished the demand for skilled telegraphers in the communication industry.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/telegrapher>