

TELEGRAPHIC

Meaning: Telegraphic refers to a style of communication that is concise, direct, and often lacking in detail or elaboration.

1. The message arrived in a telegraphic format, leaving much to the imagination.
2. His speech was so brief and direct that it felt almost telegraphic.
3. During the war, soldiers often communicated in telegraphic codes to convey urgent information.
4. The artist's style was described as telegraphic, capturing emotions in a few swift lines.
5. Her notes were telegraphic, packed with meaning yet stripped of unnecessary words.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/telegraphic>