

TELEPHONE

Meaning: Telephone: a device used for transmitting voice or sound over a distance, typically by converting sound into electrical signals.

1. She picked up the telephone and dialed her friend's number.
2. The sound of the telephone ringing echoed through the empty house.
3. He prefers to communicate via text rather than using a telephone.
4. With the advent of smartphones, the traditional telephone has evolved significantly.
5. After a long day, she enjoyed the comforting sound of her mother's voice over the telephone.
6. I always keep my telephone close by in case of emergencies.
7. She answered the telephone on the first ring, eager to hear the news.
8. The sound of the telephone ringing filled the quiet room with anticipation.
9. He decided to turn off his telephone to focus on his work without distractions.
10. After searching for hours, I finally found my lost telephone under the couch.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/telephone>