

TELEPHOTOGRAPH

Meaning: Telephotograph: a photograph taken with a telephoto lens that allows for capturing distant subjects with clarity and detail.

1. The photographer used a telephotograph lens to capture stunning images of distant wildlife.
2. During the concert, the media team employed telephotographs to ensure every moment was documented clearly.
3. A telephotograph can reveal intricate details that are often missed by the naked eye.
4. She was thrilled to see the telephotograph of the mountain range, showcasing its beauty in vivid colors.
5. With advancements in technology, telephotographs have become essential tools for nature documentaries.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/telephotograph>