

TELESCOPICALLY

Meaning: In a manner that allows for magnification or close observation of distant objects, often through a lens or optical device.

1. The scientist adjusted the lens telescopically to capture finer details of the distant star.
2. As the camera zoomed telescopically, the wildlife photographer was able to capture the eagle in stunning detail.
3. She observed the landscape telescopically, marveling at the intricate patterns formed by the trees below.
4. The engineer designed the crane to extend telescopically, allowing it to reach great heights with ease.
5. In the museum, the visitors were fascinated by the telescopically arranged exhibits that showcased artifacts from various eras.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/telescopically>