

TELIC

Meaning: Telic refers to having a definite goal or endpoint, particularly in relation to actions or verbs that signify an achievement or completion.

1. The telic nature of her goal motivated her to work tirelessly towards its achievement.
2. In linguistics, telic verbs indicate actions that have a clear endpoint or conclusion.
3. The project was designed with a telic framework to ensure that all objectives were met efficiently.
4. Understanding whether an action is telic or atelic can greatly influence how we interpret its meaning in context.
5. His telic approach to problem-solving focused on finding solutions that directly addressed the challenges at hand.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/telic>