

TEMERATION

Meaning: Temeration refers to a lack of caution or restraint, often leading to impulsive or reckless behavior.

1. Temperance is often a commendable quality, but sometimes temeration can lead to a lack of necessary caution.
2. In moments of temeration, one might overlook potential consequences in favor of immediate gratification.
3. The artist's work was marked by a temeration that captivated audiences, drawing them into a world of bold expression.
4. While temeration can inspire daring acts, it is essential to balance it with wisdom and foresight.
5. Her temeration during the negotiation process ultimately secured a deal that everyone deemed improbable.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/temeration>