

TEMPER

Meaning: Temper (noun): a person's mood or disposition, particularly in relation to anger or irritability.

1. She tried to keep her temper in check during the heated discussion.
2. His quick temper often got him into trouble with his friends.
3. The teacher praised the students for their calm temper during the fire drill.
4. It's important to learn how to manage your temper in stressful situations.
5. After a long day at work, he found it hard to control his temper at home.
6. He has a quick temper that often gets him into trouble.
7. It's important to keep your temper in check during stressful situations.
8. Her cheerful demeanor helped to temper the tension in the room.
9. The chef's temper flared when the kitchen staff made a mistake.
10. With practice, she learned to temper her reactions and respond calmly.
11. Her temper flared when she discovered the mistake in the report.
12. He has a calm demeanor, but when provoked, his temper can take everyone by surprise.
13. It's important to keep your temper in check during heated discussions.
14. She tried to temper her excitement with a dose of realism about the challenges ahead.
15. The coach's temper could change the atmosphere of the entire practice.
16. He tried to keep his temper in check during the heated discussion.
17. Her temper flared when she discovered the broken vase.
18. It's important to manage your temper to maintain healthy relationships.
19. Despite his calm demeanor, he had a quick temper that surprised many.
20. She took a deep breath to cool her temper before responding to the criticism.
21. His fiery temper often got him into trouble with his friends.
22. The coach praised the athlete for maintaining a calm temper under pressure.

23. To succeed in this business, you must learn to control your temper.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/temper>