

TEMPERAMENTAL

Meaning: Temperamental: prone to unpredictable changes in mood or behavior.

1. The artist was known for her temperamental nature, often changing her mind about projects at the last minute.
2. His temperamental personality made it difficult for his colleagues to predict how he would react in different situations.
3. The dog had a temperamental streak, alternately playful and aggressive depending on the day.
4. She found his temperamental behavior challenging, but it also added an element of excitement to their relationship.
5. The chef was temperamental, requiring the kitchen staff to adapt quickly to his shifting moods and preferences.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/temperamental>