TEMPERATENESS

Meaning: Temperateness refers to the quality of being moderate, calm, and mild in demeanor or climate.

1. Temperateness in his demeanor made him a calming presence during the heated debate.
2. The temperateness of the climate in that region attracts many tourists throughout the year.
3. She admired his temperateness, which allowed him to handle stress with grace and composure.
4. Emphasizing temperateness in our approach can lead to more balanced and thoughtful decisions.
5. In a world often driven by extremes, the value of temperateness cannot be overstated.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/temperateness