

TEMPERING

Meaning: Tempering refers to the process of heating and cooling materials, such as steel or chocolate, to improve their properties, such as strength, durability, or texture.

1. Tempering the steel properly can enhance its strength and durability.
2. The chef was tempering the chocolate to achieve a glossy finish.
3. Her calm demeanor was tempering the tense atmosphere in the room.
4. He believed that life experiences are essential for tempering one's character.
5. The artist focused on tempering the vibrant colors to create a harmonious palette.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tempering>