

TEMPESTIVILY

Meaning: 'TEMPESTIVELY' means occurring suddenly and with intensity, often unexpectedly.

1. She arrived tempestively, just in time to catch the final act of the play.
2. The storm rolled in tempestively, catching everyone off guard with its ferocity.
3. He spoke tempestively, his words full of urgency and passion that demanded attention.
4. The children ran tempestively through the rain, laughing and splashing in every puddle.
5. Her tempestive arrival changed the course of the evening, igniting a lively discussion among the guests.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tempestively>