

TEMPLED

Meaning: Templed: adorned or designed with features resembling those of a temple, often characterized by intricate details or architectural elements.

1. The ancient city was famously templated with intricate carvings that depicted its rich history.
2. After the renovation, the community center was beautifully templated to resemble a traditional temple.
3. The artist's new sculpture was templated with a series of geometric shapes that drew inspiration from spiritual architecture.
4. During the festival, the streets were templated with colorful banners and lights to honor the local deity.
5. The meditation room was templated with soft lighting and calming colors to create a serene atmosphere.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/templated>