

TEMPORALLY

Meaning: TEMPORALLY: in relation to time or the sequence of time.

1. The events were temporally linked, suggesting that one influenced the other.
2. In the study, participants were asked to recall memories temporally organized by significant life events.
3. The project was designed to address issues that are temporally relevant to current societal challenges.
4. Temporally, the effects of the medication varied from patient to patient.
5. Her research focused on the temporally dynamic interactions between climate change and ecosystem responses.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/temporally>