

TEMPT

Meaning: To tempt is to entice someone to do something, especially something that may be unwise or indulgent.

1. The aroma of freshly baked cookies can tempt even the most disciplined dieter.
2. She tried to resist the urge to buy the expensive dress, but it was hard not to tempt herself.
3. His charming smile was enough to tempt her into accepting the invitation for dinner.
4. They set up a beautiful picnic to tempt their friends to spend more time outdoors.
5. The promise of adventure can often tempt people to step out of their comfort zones.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tempt>