

TEMPTABILITY

Meaning: Temptability refers to the susceptibility or tendency to be tempted or influenced to engage in undesirable or impulsive behavior.

1. Her high level of temptability often led her into situations she later regretted.
2. The philosopher argued that understanding one's own temptability is crucial for personal growth.
3. In a world filled with distractions, the challenge of temptability becomes even more pronounced.
4. He acknowledged his temptability and took steps to avoid situations that could lead to poor decisions.
5. The study examined the relationship between self-control and individual differences in temptability.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/temptability>