

TEMPTABLE

Meaning: Temptable (adjective): susceptible to temptation or easily influenced to yield to desires or enticements.

1. He realized that in the face of such luxury, even the most disciplined individuals could become temptable.
2. Her charm made it clear that she was a temptable target for those looking to exploit her generosity.
3. The temptable nature of his desires often led him into precarious situations.
4. In a world filled with distractions, staying focused on one's goals can be a challenge for the temptable.
5. She understood that being temptable meant recognizing her weaknesses and working to overcome them.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/temptable>