

TEMPTATIONLESS

Meaning: Temptationless: free from the influence or presence of temptations or desires.

1. Living a temptationless life can lead to greater inner peace and clarity.
2. The monk's years of meditation left him feeling almost temptationless in the face of worldly desires.
3. She found that a distraction-free environment made it easier to remain temptationless during her diet.
4. The philosophy of temptationless existence emphasizes the importance of discipline and self-control.
5. In his quest for enlightenment, he strived for a state that felt entirely temptationless.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/temptationless>