

TEMPTATIOUS

Meaning: Temptatious: enticing or alluring, often in a way that provokes desire or temptation.

1. The chocolate cake was so temptatious that I couldn't resist having a second slice.
2. Her offer to join the exclusive club seemed temptatious, but I knew it came with hidden responsibilities.
3. Despite the temptatious nature of the lavish party, I decided to stay home and focus on my studies.
4. The smell of freshly baked cookies was temptatious, drawing everyone into the kitchen.
5. He found the prospect of a weekend getaway to the beach temptatious, especially after a long week of work.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/temptatious>