

TEMULENT

Meaning: Temulent: being in a state of intoxication or drunkenness, often characterized by impaired speech and coordination.

1. The temulent revelers spilled out of the pub, laughing and shouting into the night.
2. After a few too many drinks, he became temulent, his words slurring and his balance unsteady.
3. Her temulent state led her to make bold claims that she would later regret.
4. The party was filled with temulent guests who danced wildly, lost in their own euphoria.
5. Despite his temulent behavior, his friends supported him, knowing he would sober up soon.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/temulent>