

TENABILITY

Meaning: TENABILITY: the quality of being able to be defended or justified, especially in the context of arguments or proposals.

1. The tenability of her argument was questioned during the debate.
2. Experts must evaluate the tenability of the proposed solutions to climate change.
3. His promotion of the theory rested on the tenability of its foundational principles.
4. The tenability of their relationship was put to the test after the long separation.
5. In academic circles, the tenability of a hypothesis can often lead to further research and discussion.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tenability>