

TENABLE

Meaning: TENABLE: capable of being maintained or defended, especially in terms of a proposal or business model.

1. The committee found the proposal to be tenable after reviewing the data.
2. In a rapidly changing market, maintaining a tenable business model is crucial for success.
3. Her argument was well-structured and made a tenable case for policy reform.
4. The scientist emphasized that the theory was only tenable under specific conditions.
5. Despite the challenges, the team was confident that their plan was tenable and achievable.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tenable>