

TENABLENESS

Meaning: TENABLENESS: the quality of being defensible, sound, or capable of being maintained in argument or theory.

1. The tenableness of her argument was questioned by the panel of experts.
2. In evaluating the tenableness of a theory, one must consider all available evidence.
3. The tenableness of the proposal hinges on the feasibility of its implementation.
4. His insistence on the tenableness of the plan impressed even the skeptics.
5. The researchers focused on the tenableness of their findings in the context of existing studies.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tenableness>