

TENANTABLE

Meaning: TENANTABLE: suitable for occupancy or habitation by tenants.

1. The landlord ensured that the apartment was tenantable before the new renters moved in.
2. After months of repairs, the old house finally became tenantable again.
3. Local regulations require that all rental properties be kept in a tenantable condition.
4. The inspector deemed the property tenantable, much to the relief of the prospective tenants.
5. She worked tirelessly to make the once-dilapidated building tenantable for her new business.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tenantable>