

TENDMENT

Meaning: TENDMENT (noun): The act or process of fostering care, support, and connection within a community or group.

1. The tendment of the local community was evident in their efforts to support one another during tough times.
2. During the meeting, she emphasized the importance of tendment in maintaining strong relationships among team members.
3. His tendment towards a more sustainable lifestyle inspired his friends to make similar changes.
4. The tendment of the garden required daily attention and care to flourish beautifully.
5. Through acts of kindness and generosity, the residents showcased their tendment to the neighborhood's well-being.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tendment>