

TENDRIL

Meaning: A tendril is a slender, threadlike structure by which a climbing plant attaches itself to a support.

1. The young vine curled around the trellis, its delicate tendril seeking support.
2. As the sun set, the tendrils of the creeping plant glowed softly in the fading light.
3. She marveled at the intricate tendrils of the spider silk, glistening with dew.
4. The artist captured the tendril-like forms in her sculpture, evoking a sense of movement.
5. With every gust of wind, the tendrils of the wildflower danced gracefully.
6. The vine's tendril wrapped delicately around the trellis.
7. In the early morning light, the tendril of the plant glistened with dew.
8. He reached out to touch the tendril, fascinated by its soft, curling form.
9. The tendril reached out towards the sunlight, searching for warmth and nourishment.
10. As the storm approached, the tendril swayed nervously in the wind.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tendril>