TENEBROUS

Meaning: Tenebrous: dark, shadowy, or obscure, often evoking a sense of mystery or foreboding.

1. The ancient castle stood in a tenebrous forest, shrouded in mist and mystery.

2. She felt a chill run down her spine as she entered the tenebrous room, filled with shadows and secrets.

3. His tenebrous past haunted him, casting a long shadow over his present life.

4. The novel's tenebrous themes explored the darker sides of human nature and morality.

5. They wandered through the tenebrous alley, their footsteps echoing ominously against the damp walls.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tenebrous