

TENSILED

Meaning: TENSILED: Adjective describing materials that have been subjected to tension or stretching to assess their strength and properties.

1. The engineer tested the material's strength by examining the tensiled samples under various conditions.
2. In the lab, the researchers focused on the tensiled properties of the new composite material.
3. The bridge was constructed using tensiled cables to enhance its structural integrity.
4. She marveled at how the tensiled fabric could withstand such extreme pressure without tearing.
5. During the experiment, the tensiled connections were crucial for maintaining stability in the structure.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tensiled>