

TENSION

Meaning: Tension refers to a state of mental or emotional strain and suspense, often characterized by anxiety or unease in a social situation.

1. The tension in the room was palpable as everyone awaited the announcement.
2. After hours of negotiation, the tension between the two parties began to ease.
3. She could feel the tension in her shoulders release as she stepped into the warm bath.
4. The film built up tension masterfully, leading to a shocking climax.
5. Their disagreement added an underlying tension that affected the entire team.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tension>