

TENTORIUM

Meaning: Tentorium: a membrane in the brain that separates the cerebellum from the cerebrum and supports the structure of the brain.

1. The tentorium is a critical structure in the brain that separates the cerebellum from the cerebrum.
2. During the surgical procedure, the neurosurgeon carefully navigated around the tentorium to avoid damaging vital brain tissue.
3. In cases of increased intracranial pressure, the tentorium can be a site of significant tension and distortion.
4. Understanding the anatomy of the tentorium is essential for medical professionals dealing with cranial trauma.
5. The tentorium cerebelli plays a vital role in supporting the brain and maintaining its structural integrity.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tentorium>