

TEPAL

Meaning: Tepal: a petal-like structure in flowers that does not distinguish between petals and sepals.

1. The tepal is a term used to describe the petal-like structures in flowers that do not differentiate between petals and sepals.
2. In some plants, such as lilies, the tepals can be strikingly colorful and help attract pollinators.
3. Botanists often examine the arrangement of tepals to classify different species of flowering plants.
4. The orchid family is known for its unique tepal shapes and intricate patterns that enhance their beauty.
5. When studying floral morphology, distinguishing between petals and tepals can provide insight into a plant's evolutionary adaptations.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tepal>