

TEPID

Meaning: Tepid means moderately warm; lukewarm, lacking in enthusiasm or warmth.

1. The tepid water in the pool was not inviting on the hot summer day.
2. After hours of brewing, the tea had turned tepid and lost its comforting warmth.
3. His tepid response to the exciting news left everyone feeling a bit disappointed.
4. The soup was meant to be served hot, but it had cooled to a tepid temperature.
5. Despite the movie's hype, the tepid audience reaction indicated that it fell short of expectations.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tepid>