

TERCENTENARY

Meaning: Tercentenary refers to the 300th anniversary of an event, particularly the founding of a place or institution.

1. The city organized a grand celebration for the tercentenary of its founding.
2. At the tercentenary festivities, historians shared fascinating tales from the past three centuries.
3. The museum unveiled a special exhibit to commemorate the tercentenary of the famous landmark.
4. Local schools participated in projects that highlighted significant events from the tercentenary year.
5. As the tercentenary approached, community members reflected on the changes their town had undergone.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tercentenary>