

TERGIFEROUS

Meaning: Tergiferous refers to having a back or dorsal surface that aids in camouflage or protection, often used to describe creatures that blend into their surroundings.

1. The tergiferous characteristics of the insect's body allow it to blend seamlessly into its environment.
2. In ancient texts, the tergiferous beasts were often depicted as guardians of hidden treasures.
3. Researchers are fascinated by the tergiferous adaptations that some species have developed for survival.
4. The artist chose a tergiferous motif for her mural, symbolizing the fusion of nature and architecture.
5. During the expedition, the team encountered a tergiferous creature unlike any they had seen before.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tergiferous>