

TERGIVERSATION

Meaning: Tergiversation is the act of evading straightforward action or clear commitment, often through ambiguous or contradictory statements.

1. His constant tergiversation made it difficult to trust his commitment to the project.
2. The politician's tergiversation during the debate left voters confused about his true stance.
3. Her tergiversation in the meeting was evident, as she avoided answering the direct questions.
4. Tergiversation can often be a sign of underlying insecurity or fear of commitment.
5. Instead of taking a clear position, his tergiversation only fueled further speculation among his colleagues.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tergiversation>