

TERMINAL

Meaning: Terminal: a building or area where passengers arrive and depart, typically associated with transportation facilities such as trains or airplanes.

1. The train pulled into the terminal just as the sun began to set.
2. She rushed to the airport terminal, anxious not to miss her flight.
3. The hospital's terminal care unit provides support for patients in their final days.
4. A power outage could cause the computer to crash at the terminal.
5. The bus terminal downtown is always bustling with travelers and commuters.
6. The flight was delayed due to a storm, leaving passengers waiting in the terminal for hours.
7. He felt a mix of excitement and anxiety as he approached the terminal for his first solo trip.
8. The train station's terminal was bustling with travelers rushing to catch their connections.
9. She checked her watch repeatedly, worried that she might miss her flight from the busy terminal.
10. The new terminal at the airport features state-of-the-art technology and a variety of dining options.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/terminal>