

TERMINATION

Meaning: Termination refers to the act of ending or concluding something, such as a contract or project.

1. The termination of the contract was unexpected, leaving many employees in limbo.
2. After a thorough review, the board decided to proceed with the termination of the project.
3. He faced termination after repeated violations of company policy.
4. The termination notice was delivered via email, causing frustration among the staff.
5. In legal terms, termination refers to the end of an agreement or employment.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/termination>