

TERMLESS

Meaning: Termless (adjective): having no fixed duration or expiration date, allowing for indefinite continuation or reconsideration of terms.

1. The agreement was termless, allowing both parties to reconsider their commitments at any time.
2. In a termless contract, the lack of expiration can create uncertainty for both employees and employers.
3. Her termless lease gave her the freedom to stay as long as she liked without the pressure of renewal deadlines.
4. They preferred a termless arrangement for their partnership, valuing flexibility over rigidity.
5. The termless nature of their relationship allowed for organic growth and change without constraints.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/termless>