

TERPENE

Meaning: Terpene: a class of organic compounds produced by plants that are responsible for their aromatic qualities and may possess therapeutic benefits.

1. Terpenes are organic compounds found in many plants, contributing to their aroma and flavor.
2. In addition to their fragrant qualities, terpenes may also have therapeutic properties beneficial to health.
3. The cannabis industry has increasingly focused on the role of terpenes in enhancing the effects of various strains.
4. Some essential oils derive their distinct scents from the concentration of specific terpenes present in the plants.
5. Research into terpenes has expanded our understanding of plant chemistry and its applications in medicine and wellness.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/terpene>