

TERRINE

Meaning: Terrine: a dish made of meat, fish, or vegetables that is cooked and served in a mold, typically sliced and layered.

1. The chef presented a beautifully layered terrine made of duck and pistachios.
2. For the picnic, she prepared a vibrant vegetable terrine that was both colorful and delicious.
3. At the dinner party, the highlight was a rich foie gras terrine served with a tangy fruit compote.
4. He admired the artistic presentation of the terrine, garnished with fresh herbs and edible flowers.
5. The recipe called for a delicate gelatin to hold the terrine together while enhancing its flavors.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/terrine>