

TERRITORIALLY

Meaning: Territorially means relating to or concerning a specific area or region, especially in terms of control, distribution, or habitat.

1. The company decided to expand its operations territorially to better serve its growing customer base.
2. Territorially, the species is known to inhabit both coastal and inland regions, adapting to various environments.
3. The conflict arose not just economically, but also territorially, as each side claimed ownership of the disputed land.
4. In the meeting, they discussed how to manage resources more effectively, both financially and territorially.
5. Territorially, the nation has been relatively stable, but tensions with neighboring countries remain a concern.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/territorially>