

TESTABLE

Meaning: Testable: capable of being assessed or evaluated through experimentation or observation.

1. A hypothesis must be testable in order to be scientifically valid.
2. The software update included features that are easily testable in real-world scenarios.
3. For the experiment to be credible, all variables must be clearly defined and testable.
4. The researchers focused on creating a framework that made the theories more testable.
5. In education, it's important to develop curriculum goals that are both measurable and testable.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/testable>