

TESTIFICATION

Meaning: Testification refers to a formal statement or testimony provided as evidence, often used to support a claim or promote accountability.

1. The lawyer presented a compelling testification from the eyewitness to strengthen the case.
2. In her speech, she emphasized the importance of testification in promoting transparency within the organization.
3. His testification during the trial revealed crucial information that changed the direction of the investigation.
4. The testification provided by the expert witness was pivotal in persuading the jury of the defendant's innocence.
5. She submitted her testification to the committee, hoping it would influence their decision on the policy changes.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/testification>