

TESTIMONY

Meaning: Testimony is a formal statement or declaration, often given in a legal context, that provides evidence or personal experiences related to a specific matter.

1. The witness's testimony was crucial in deciding the outcome of the trial.
2. Her heartfelt testimony revealed the struggles she faced throughout her life.
3. During the hearing, the defendant's testimony raised more questions than answers.
4. The expert provided testimony that supported the claims made by the plaintiff.
5. In his testimony, he recounted the events leading up to the incident in vivid detail.
6. The witness's testimony was crucial in determining the outcome of the trial.
7. Her testimony about the events leading up to the accident left everyone in the courtroom stunned.
8. He provided his testimony with such conviction that it swayed the jury's opinion.
9. The documentary included powerful testimony from survivors of the disaster.
10. During the hearing, the expert's testimony shed light on the complexities of the case.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/testimony>