

TETANIZE

Meaning: TETANIZE: to induce sustained muscle contraction or spasms, typically through stimulation of the nerves or exposure to certain toxins.

1. The sudden shock from the electric current seemed to tetanize the muscles of his arm.
2. In the lab, researchers observed how certain toxins could tetanize the nerve impulses in the test subjects.
3. During the demonstration, the scientist explained how tetanizing agents affect muscle contractions.
4. Athletes must be cautious, as extreme exertion can tetanize their muscles, leading to severe cramps.
5. The doctor noted that the injury had the potential to tetanize the affected area, restricting movement.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tetanize>