

TETHER

Meaning: TETHER (verb): To fasten or secure an object, such as an animal or vessel, to a fixed point to prevent movement or drifting away.

1. The dog was securely tethered to the post while we enjoyed our picnic.
2. They used a rope to tether the canoe to the dock to prevent it from drifting away.
3. In the vast expanse of space, astronauts must tether themselves to the spacecraft during their missions.
4. The artist felt a strong desire to tether her emotions into her work, creating pieces that resonated deeply with viewers.
5. He tried to tether his ambitions to reality, understanding the importance of setting achievable goals.
6. The dog was securely tethered to the post while its owner ran into the store.
7. She felt a sense of comfort knowing her thoughts were tethered to the memories of her childhood.
8. Astronauts must tether themselves to the spacecraft to avoid floating away in the vacuum of space.
9. Their friendship seemed to tether them together, even through the toughest of times.
10. The artist used vibrant colors to tether her emotions to the canvas, creating a powerful visual impact.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tether>