

TEXT

Meaning: Text: a written or printed work, especially one that conveys information or ideas, or a message sent electronically.

1. The teacher asked us to analyze the text for its underlying themes.
2. He sent me a text to confirm our meeting time for later today.
3. As I scrolled through my messages, I stumbled upon a text that made me smile.
4. The ancient manuscript contained a text that was difficult to decipher.
5. In the world of digital communication, a simple text can convey a multitude of emotions.
6. The professor asked us to analyze the text for deeper meaning.
7. She sent a quick text to her friend to confirm their plans for the evening.
8. The ancient manuscript was difficult to decipher, but the text revealed fascinating insights.
9. He prefers reading physical books over digital text, claiming it feels more personal.
10. The text message arrived just as she was about to leave the house.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/text>