

TEXTILE

Meaning: Textile: a flexible material made from interlacing fibers, commonly used in the production of clothing and other fabric-based products.

1. The textile industry has undergone significant transformations with the advent of sustainable materials.
2. She admired the intricate patterns woven into the ancient textile displayed in the museum.
3. Cotton and wool are two of the most commonly used fibers in the textile production process.
4. During the festival, local artisans showcased their unique textile creations, highlighting traditional techniques.
5. Understanding the properties of different textiles is essential for anyone interested in fashion design.
6. The textile industry has undergone significant changes with the advent of sustainable materials.
7. Designers often experiment with different textile combinations to create unique fashion statements.
8. The rise of digital printing technology has revolutionized the way textiles are produced.
9. In many cultures, the art of textile production is passed down through generations as a cherished tradition.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/textile>